Biography

Sandra has always been passionate about helping real people through difficult times, which has led her to develop a practice in the areas of probate and estate matters, including difficult estate disputes, as well as personal injury and insurance disputes. While building her practice with Patterson Law since her call to the Bar in 2011, Sandra has successfully assisted many clients through the legalities of these personal challenges, whether by settlement or by litigating those challenges at all levels of Court in Nova Scotia. Sandra's interests also include the laws affecting animals, and municipal law matters.

At home, Sandra is the proud mother of two young children and her dog, Heidi, all of whom regularly put her creative thinking and negotiation skills to the test.
